

MOTHER'S DAY

It's that time of the year for many families when we are asked to think of Mother's everywhere. When children make cards and think of presents. According to Karen Shury a solicitor at Hubbard Pegman & Whitney, for separated families or Mother's who live apart from their children this can be a very difficult time. Just as fathers who maybe living apart from their children, Mother's can be trying to cope with the grief of their loss or the knowledge that their children might not want to see them. If you are a Mother who does not live with her children for whatever reason remember that there are people who do not immediately assume the worst, who may be able and willing to help. If you would like to know more or obtain some advice please contact Karen Shury a lawyer at Hubbard, Pegman and Whitney Solicitors in Hammersmith, West London.
